Krishna Mahabir of GCHS was nominated by Daneiry Nunez for honor.

Atlanta, GA—March 10, 2010—Teacher Krishna Mahabir of Grover Cleveland HS in Ridge-wood, NY was recently selected as a Claes Nobel Educator of Distinction by The National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS). A role model to pupils, Krishna was nominated by student Daneiry Nunez for outstanding dedication and commitment to excellence in the classroom.

Student members of HSHSS have the opportunity to nominate the educator who made the most significant contribution to their academic career. The Claes Nobel Educator of Distinction award recognizes teacher role models who have made a lasting difference in their classroom by encouraging students to strive for excellence.

“Dedicated educators who exhibit a commitment to excellence deserve our highest praise and appreciation,” said NSHSS President James Lewis. “We’re excited to provide an ongoing means to do so, and we encourage our members to nominate teachers who have contributed to their academic success.”
