

Grover Cleveland High School

Sept. 2010

Dominick Scarola, Principal

Good News

AP Reading at GCHS

Mr. Guerra attends the College Board's 2010 AP Reading Program

Grover Cleveland High School Global Studies / AP US History teacher Mr. David Guerra

September 2010

Dear Administrator,

On behalf of the College Board's advanced Placement Program (AP) and Educational Testing Services, we would like to extend congratulations to your school for the significant contributions made by Davis Guerra at the 2010 AP Reading.

In June 2010, 681 high school AP US History teachers joined forces with college faculty who teach in the same discipline to score 387,416 exams in Louisville, KY. The careful evaluations of students' work by your staff member and other highly qualified professionals is one of the most important aspects of the AP Program. The program's acknowledged success is due to an evaluation and scoring process that reflects the high standards of AP Readers who, by virtue of their experience and expertise, have appropriate performance expectations within their respective disciplines.

In addition, many AP teachers report that participating in the AP Reading is an incredibly valuable professional development experience. The time spent examining students' performance, as well as the opportunity to exchange ideas about the types of instructional practices that lead to optimal student performance, are highly valued aspects of the overall AP Reading experience.

The AP Program would like to extend appreciation to your school for supporting your teacher's attendance at the 2010 Reading, and to commend you for recognizing the value of the experience to your teacher, and subsequently to your AP students.

Sincerely,
Trevor Packer
Vice President
Advanced Placement Program

